MASON & HAMLIN'S

CABINET ORGANS,

ONE TO TWELVE STOPS, $110 TO $1000 EACH,

Are to smaller churches and private residences what the large pipe-organs are to cathedrals and large churches. They have considerable variety and great purity and volume of tone, and are capable of the nicest shades of expression. They occupy little space, and are not liable to get out of tune or out of order, being remarkable for their power of successfully resisting the most unfavorable atmospheric influences, and for being adapted to all climates.

They can be safely sent to any part of the world, and boxed for this purpose without being taken apart; so that when unpacked they are all ready for use.

The manufacturers have the satisfaction of knowing that the instruments of their make have the decided preference over all others of a majority of the most distinguished Organists in the country. Among those who thus recommend them as superior to all others, are: WM. BERGE, Organist of St. Francis Xavier's Church, New-York; CHARLES BARUS, Organist of St. Patrick's Church, Cincinnati; A. C. EIMER, Organist of SS. Peter and Paul's Church, St. Louis; R. HEROLD, Organist of St. Mary's Cathedral, San Francisco; A. LECOURS, Organist of Immaculate Conception Church, Lawrence, Mass.; LOUIS SCHMIDT, Organist of Grace Cathedral, San Francisco; GUSTAVUS SMITZ, Organist of Immaculate Conception Church, New-York; F. TUDOR, Organist of St. Patrick's Cathedral, Hartford; A. WERNER, Organist of the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston; J. H. WILCOX, Organist of Church of the Immaculate Conception, Boston; L. M. GOTTSCHALK, MAURICE STRAKOSCH, MAX MARETZEK, S. B. MILLS, GEO. W. MORGAN, JOHN ZUNDEL, and TWO HUNDRED OTHERS, of the most distinguished Organists and Artists of the country.

FIFTY-TWO GOLD OR SILVER MEDALS,

or other highest premiums, have been awarded to MASON & HAMLIN within a few years, for the Best Instruments of this General Class.

WHEELER & WILSON'S LOCK STITCH SEWING MACHINES,

No. 625 Broadway, New-York.

This Machine makes the LOCK-STITCH, and ranks highest on account of the elasticity, permanence, beauty, and general desirableness of the stitching when done, and the wide range of its application.—Report of American Institute.

Mrs. Vinton desires me to express to you her entire satisfaction with your Sewing-Machine. I may add that, judging from the frequency of the rapid tick of this Machine, it promotes both industry and pleasure. My purse bears witness that the Sewing-Machine, among its other excellences, is a household economy.—Rev. Dr. FRANCIS VINTON.

PREFACE.

THE publication of the Directory for the current year has been somewhat delayed on account of the late hour at which many of the returns reached the publishers, owing to the attendance of the Right Rev. Prelates at the Plenary Council. The Directory will, however, be found unusually complete, embracing full details of all the Dioceses in the United States. The publishers trust that the work will be found accurate and correct, and would respectfully request the coöperation of the Rev. Clergy throughout the country in the ensuing year, to render it as perfect as it is possible to make a work of the kind. They would also urge upon the authorities of the different Dioceses the necessity of sending in their returns as early in the Fall as possible, thus avoiding unnecessary delay in its publication.

CHRONOLOGICAL CYCLES.

Dominical Letter,	F	Solar Cycle,	28
Epact,	25	Indiction,	24
Golden Number,	6	Sundays after Pentecost,	24

The calends were the first day of each month among the Romans, hence a calendar was a list of the months, beginning with their calends.

The real solar year contains 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes, 48 seconds. The common or civil year only 365 days. But for the neglect of these fractions Julius Cæsar ordered an additional day to be given to every fourth year, introducing it after February 24th, in Latin sextilis; hence these years are called Bissextile, or, in English, Leap Years. The Julian Calendar did not completely rectify the error, and Pope Gregory XIII., in 1582, ordered the days from October 5th to 14th in that year to be suppressed, and the century years 1700, 1800, not to be regarded as leap years. This reform, called the Gregorian Calendar, Protestant countries refused for nearly two hundred years to accept; but, preferring darkness to light, retained the erroneous calendar. In New-York, where the Dutch used the correct calendar, the English, on capturing it, restored the erroneous form, and retained it for a hundred years.

The Epact expresses the moon's age on the first day of the year, and is used to determine Easter, which depends on the moon, being always the first Sunday after the first full moon after the vernal equinox, (March 21st.)

The Golden Number is the number of years that have elapsed since a new moon fell on January 1st. It is obtained by adding one to the date, and dividing by 19, the number of years in a cycle.

From eleven times the golden number subtract 10 and divide by 30, subtract one, and the remainder is the epact.

The epact subtracted from 24 gives the number of days from March 21st to the next ecclesiastical full moon, and the following Sunday, shown by the Dominical letter, is Easter-Sunday.

By the reformation of the calendar by Pope Gregory XIII., the year began on the first day of January; and, consequently, whenever and wherever the NEW STYLE of reckoning time was adopted, then and there the year commenced on this day.

Previous to the use of the Gregorian Calendar, the years had different days of beginning at various times in the same and different countries, and occasionally at the same time in the same country. In most countries it began on one of the following days:

Christmas-day, the 25th of December;
Circumcision-day, the 1st of January;
Lady-day, the 25th of March; and
Easter-day, the day of the Resurrection of our Lord.

TO ASCERTAIN THE LENGTH OF THE DAY AND NIGHT.

At any time of the year add twelve hours to the time of the sun's setting, and from the sum subtract the time of rising, for the length of the day. Subtract the time of setting from twelve hours, and to the remainder add the time of rising next morning, for the length of the night. These rules are equally true for apparent time.

ECLIPSES FOR THE YEAR 1867.

There will be four eclipses this year, as follows:

I. An annular eclipse of the Sun, March 6th. Invisible in America, but visible in Europe, Africa, and Asia.

II. A partial eclipse of the Moon, early Wednesday morning, March 20th. Visible throughout America. 0.813 of the Moon's diameter on the southern limit. At New-York, begins 2h. 19m. Middle, 3h. 53m. End, 5h. 26m., morning.

III. A total eclipse of the Sun, August 29th. Invisible in the United States.

IV. A partial eclipse of the Moon, on Friday, September 13th, in the evening. Visible in America generally. In California and Oregon, invisible. The Moon will rise about sunset; and at places west of Boston, it will rise more or l eclipsed. At New-York, begins before the Moon rises. Middle, 7h. 3 End, 9h. 0m., evening.

Holydays of Obligation.

1. The Circumcision of our Lord—The Epiphany—The Annunciation of B. V. Mary—The Ascension of our Lord—Corpus Christi—The Assumptio the B. V. Mary—All Saints—Nativity of our Lord, or Christmas.

N. B.—Sundays, and the feasts which fall on them, are not included in enumeration.

(In some Western Dioceses the Circumcision, Epiphany, Annunciation, Corpus Christi, are not holydays of obligation.)

Fasting Days.

Fridays in Advent. Every day in Lent, Sundays excepted. The Em Days (see below). The Vigil of Whitsunday or Pentecost, of the Assump of All Saints, and of Christmas.

N. B.—1. When a feast falls on Monday, the vigil is kept on the Satur preceding. To fast, consists in abstaining from flesh-meat, and eating but full meal in the day, not before twelve o'clock M. Besides this, a collatio about the one fourth of a meal, is allowed in the evening. All who have c pleted their twenty-first year are obliged to observe the fasts of the Chu unless exempted for some legitimate cause.

2. In some dioceses the Friday of the Ember-Days is the only Friday Advent on which there is an obligation to fast.

3. It has been directed by the Sacred Congregation de Propaganda Fide, the feast of SS. Peter and Paul be solemnly celebrated in the United State the Sunday immediately after the 29th of June, and it is the wish of the Sa Congregation that the Bishops exhort the faithful under their charge to fast on the Saturday preceding that solemn celebration.

Days of Abstinence.

All Fridays. When Christmas falls on a Friday, abstinence is not of cept. Abstinence on Saturday has been dispensed with, for the faithful of United States, except when a fast falls on that day. Soldiers and sailors in service of the United States, even in barracks, garrisons, etc., are dispense an indult of Pope Pius IX., from the rule of abstinence, except on six days in each year, namely, Ash Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday in Holy Week, the Vigil of the Assumption, and Christmas Eve.

Ember-Days.

The Ember-Days are the Wednesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays, which occur, 1st, in winter, immediately after the third Sunday of Advent; 2d, in the spring, immediately after the first Sunday in Lent; 3d, in the summer, during Whitsun-Week; 4th, in the autumn, immediately after the 14th of September. They are days of fasting, and are of great antiquity in the Church. The object of their observance is, to consecrate to God the four seasons of the year, by penance; to obtain his blessing on the fruits of the earth, and to beg of him worthy ministers of the Church. The ordination of clergymen generally takes place, in Catholic countries, on Ember-Saturday.

INDULGENCES GRANTED TO THE FAITHFUL OF THE UNITED STATES.

On the 13th of August, 1792, his Holiness granted to all and each of the faithful of the Catholic communion, living in the ENTIRE* diocese of Baltimore, a plenary Indulgence to be gained by all who, having made a good confession and holy communion on the days mentioned below, shall visit the parish church, or any other; and if there be no church or chapel, shall devoutly recite five times Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be to the Father, and fervently pray for the propagation of the Catholic faith, and the exaltation of the Church.

These plenary Indulgences may be gained on the following days, F. D.

From the vigil of Christmas, until the day of Epiphany, inclusively.

From the first Sunday of Lent, to the second, inclusively.

From Passion Sunday to Maundy Thursday, inclusively.

From the Vespers of Holy Saturday to Low Sunday, inclusively.

From the first Vespers of Whit-Sunday, until the last day of the Octave of Corpus Christi, inclusively.

On the feasts of the Purification, Annunciation, Assumption, Nativity, and Conception of the B. V. Mary, and during the whole Octaves of these feasts.

On the feast of the Apostles SS. Peter and Paul, and during the whole Octave of the same feast.

On the feast of St. Michael the Archangel, and during the whole Octave of the same feast.

On the feast of All-Saints, and during the whole Octave of the same.

☞By a decree of the Congregation of Indulgences, published January 28, 1842, in order that the faithful may gain the indulgences published by the Holy See, it is necessary that they should be recognized by the Bishops, and promulgated by them in their respective dioceses.

* The Diocese of Baltimore then included all the States east of the Mississippi, except Florida.

DIRECTIONS FOR UNDERSTANDING THE ORDO.

The prayers and portions of the Holy Scriptures, of which the Mass is composed, are, in part, unalterably the same, and partly different every day. Those that are fixed and invariable are contained in what is called the Ordinary of the Mass, to be found at the beginning of the Missal. The parts that are changeable or proper—the Introits, Collects, Gradual, Tracts, Epistles, Gospel, Offertories, Secrets, Communions, and Post-communions—form the subsequent contents of the book. As the Prefaces are not so frequently subject to change, they follow each other in regular succession in the ordinary of the Mass.

If a double should fall on a Sunday, then the mass of the double is said instead of that of the Sunday, unless it be a privileged Sunday, such as the first Sunday of Advent, or Lent, Passion, Palm, Easter, Pentecost, and Trinity Sundays, which are never superseded; or a Sunday of the second class, which can not be superseded, except by doubles of the first class, as the 2d, 3d, and 4th of Advent, Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima; as also the 2d, 3d, and 4th of Lent. It must, however, be remarked, that the Gospels for Sundays, thus superseded by doubles, are never omitted, but are recited at the end of the Mass, instead of St. John's Gospel; and, also, that a commemoration of the Sunday by its proper collect, secret, and post-communion, is always made immediately after the collect, etc., of the festival.

But as it sometimes happens that a double is transferred to some future vacant day, on account of some festival of higher rank intervening, then the difficulty of finding out the day on which such transferred festival is celebrated, as well as all other difficulties regarding the service, may be easily removed by consulting the following Ordo, as a guide to the morning as well as to the evening service of the Church.

1. The Office of every day is either Double, Semidouble, Simple, or of the Feria.

Of doubles, (so called because the anthems are repeated entire, both before and after the Psalms at vespers,) some are of the first class, marked thus in the calendar, doub. 1st cl.; others of the second class, and are marked thus, doub. 2 cl.; others are greater doubles, marked gr. doub.; others common doubles, marked doub.

2. Doubles are always kept on the day marked in the calendar, unless they fall on some Sunday of the first or second class, some privileged feria, or within certain octaves, which take place of the festivals; in which case they are transferred to the first day not marked either as a double or a semidouble.

Doub. 1st. cl., denotes a great solemnity; doub. 2 cl., a lesser solemnity; greater doub. marks the feast to be of higher rite than a common double; doub. is the common and most general rank of saints; semid. is less than a double; simpl. shows the feast to be of the lowest rite; fer. or feria day is a week-day, having no feast; great fer. are week-days in Lent, Advent, etc.; Vig. or Vigil, is the eve of a great solemnity.

The Sundays of the 1st class, which takes place of all doubles, are:

The first Sunday of Advent, the first Sunday of Lent, Passion Sunday, Palm Sunday, Easter Sunday, Low Sunday, Whit Sunday, Trinity Sunday.

The Sundays of the second class, which takes place, also, of all doubles, except those of the first class, and of which, in that case, a commemoration is made at mass and in both vespers, are, the second, third, and fourth of Advent; Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima, the second, third, and fourth of Lent.

The Ferias, which enjoy the same privileges as Sundays of the first class, are, Ash Wednesday, All Holy Week, Whitsun-Eve, the whole octaves of Easter and Whitsuntide.

In like manner, within the octave of the Epiphany, no feast less than a first class can be kept.

On all other Sundays of the year, if a double occur, it is kept with a commemoration of the Sunday at mass, and at vespers also, except the following day be a feast of the first class.

3. A semidouble (so called because only a part of the Anthem is said before each psalm at vespers) is marked in the calendar thus, semid., and occurring on any Sunday whatsoever, is put off to the first vacant day; that is, the first day on which there is neither double nor semidouble marked in the calendar. The same is to be observed of all semidoubles occurring within the octave of Corpus Christi.

4. Simples have no mark in the calendar, and are never transferred; but if they fall on Sunday, or on any other day when the office cannot be said of them, a commemoration is made of the first vespers, and at mass; unless it be a feast of the first class, (on which no notice is taken of simples,) or of the second class, in which case a commemoration of them is made in the Lauds, and at a low, private mass only.

5. The following ferias, called greater ferias, take place of all simples, of which there is only a commemoration made at mass; viz., the ferias of Advent and of Lent, the Ember-Days, and Tuesday in Rogation Week. A commemoration is also made of the ferias of Advent and of Lent at vespers and at mass, whatever feast happens; but, of the Ember-Days and Tuesday in Rogation Week, only at mass.

6. If a vigil happen within the octave, the mass is of the vigil, with a commemoration of the octave, unless there be a double or a semidouble feast that day, in which case the mass is of the feast, with a commemoration of the octave and of the vigil. But if a vigil occur on a feast of the first class, there is no commemoration made of it.

If a festival, that has a vigil, fall on a Monday, the mass of the vigil is said on the foregoing Saturday, except the vigil of Christmas and of the Epiphany.

If a vigil happen in Advent, the mass is of the vigil, with a commemoration of the feria, except the vigil of Christmas.

If a vigil happen in Lent, or an ember-day, the mass is of the feria, with a commemoration of the vigil.

In the paschal time there is no office of vigil, except that of Ascension-eve, which, however, is no fast.

7. When a double of the first or second class, which is a holyday of obligation, falling on any day, is to be transferred, the obligation of the holyday is seldom transferred, but the faithful are generally obliged to hear mass on the day marked in the calendar.

8. When several festivals have been translated from their proper days, they are afterward to be kept in this order: first, those that are doubles, and then those that are semidoubles; and among the doubles or semidoubles, those whose proper days first occurred, are to be kept first; there are, however, some exceptions to this rule.

9. Coll. or Collect, signifies the oration or prayer. Upon all doubles one collect, secret, or post-communion, only is said; except they fall on a Sunday, or within some octave, or upon some vigil, or in the time of Lent or Advent, or except it occurs with some simple; in all which cases two collects, etc., are said; one of the double, the other of the Sunday, octave, etc.

10. Upon Sundays and all semidoubles, are said three collects, secrets, and post-communions; excepting Sundays, which occur within an octave, on which are said two collects, etc.; one of the Sunday, the other of the octave.

11. The second and third collects, secrets, and post-communions to be said on Sundays and semidoubles in the different seasons of the year, are specified in their proper places.

12. Upon semidoubles occurring within octaves, or on vigils, etc., the second collect, secret, and post-communion are a commemoration of the octave or vigil; and the third of the B. V. M., but within the octaves of the blessed Virgin, the third is of the Holy Ghost.

13. On semidoubles in Advent, the second collect, secret, and post-communion, are the collect, etc., of the foregoing Sunday; the third of the blessed Virgin Mary.

14. Upon simples and ferias, three collects, etc., are said; but, if the priest please, he may say five or seven, to be taken out of the divers prayers in the common.

15. Upon week days, which have no proper office, nor any saint's day occurring thereon, the mass is of the foregoing Sunday.

16. Upon days within octaves, when no proper mass is assigned, the mass is said as on the feast, with three collects, etc.—N. B. The days within octaves are kept as semidoubles only.

17. The collect of the B. V. M. within octaves on vigils and on semidoubles within paschal time, Grant, O Lord, etc., is found in the votive mass of the blessed Virgin Mary; from Advent to Christmas the collect of B. V. M. is, O God, who wast pleased, read in the mass of the first Sunday of Advent; from Christmas to Candlemas the collect of the blessed Virgin, O God, who by the fruitful, as in the mass of the Circumcision.

18. The collect of gen. suffr., or general suffrage, is the prayer of the suffrages of the saints, which begins thus, Preserve us, O Lord, found in the ordinary of the mass.

19. The collects for the Church and Pope are said in the mass of the first Sunday of Advent. The collect of the Pope is said on the anniversary days of his creation and coronation: the creation here signifies his election to the sovereign Pontificate.

20. The words ad lib. signify that one is at liberty to recite any of the occasional collects or prayers found toward the end of a missal.

21. The gospels assigned on Sundays are never omitted. Wherefore if a double be kept on a Sunday, at the end of mass is read the gospel of the Sunday, instead of that of St. John; and the same is observed when a double or semidouble is kept upon one day in Lent, or on a vigil or ember-day.

22. Where a special prayer is ordered to be said in the mass by the Bishop, it cannot be said in the place of the third prayer, which is noted ad lib. It must be said as the fourth. This prayer is omitted in all masses of the first class, and in high masses of the second class, unless it be ordered pro causa gravi, when it is said under the one conclusion. It may be said in private masses of the second class.

DIRECTIONS FOR USING THE VESPER, OR OFFICE-BOOK.

It appears necessary to explain the order, as well as the manner, in which that part of the public Liturgy of the Catholic Church called Vespers is recited or sung.

Our Father, and Hail Mary, being said in silence, the priest making the sign of the Cross, intones aloud the Versicle, Deus in adjutorium meum intende; to which the choir add the responsory, Domine ad adjuvandum me festina, with the Gloria Patri; and when five Psalms with as many anthems have been sung, the priest sings the little chapter.

Then are sung the Hymn, with its Versicle and Responsory, and the Magnificat, with its Anthem, followed by such Prayers and Commemorations as are suitable to the day; which, if it be neither a Double nor within the Octave of a Festival, are the common Commemorations or Suffrages, and are to be found after the vespers for Saturday.

Every double has first and second vespers: the first are said on the eve of the Festival, and the second on the Festival itself. Hence it often happens that the vespers are not of the Sunday, but of some double that falls on the ensuing day.

To find out the particular vespers for every Sunday and holyday throughout the year, consult the Directory at the day of the month on which such Sunday or Festival falls.

EXPLANATION OF THE VESTMENTS AND CEREMONIES USED IN THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS.

All the external rites used in the celebration of the Holy Mysteries are intended for the instruction of the faithful. The chief design of these rites is to commemorate and to represent the passion and death of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. This is plainly to be observed in the Altar and its ornaments, as also in the vestments which are worn by the Priest.

The Altar represents Mount Calvary, where the Redeemer of the world expired upon an ignominious cross. This very word Altar has relation to sacrifice, which must necessarily be offered to God in that church in which his true faith is professed; and hence this name of Altar is mentioned by St. Paul—"We have an altar," said he, "whereof they have no right to eat who serve the tabernacle."—Heb. xiii. 10. The Altar also represents the table on which our blessed Saviour, the night before he suffered, celebrated his last supper with his disciples.

The Candles are lighted during the Holy Mysteries, through a motive of honor and respect. They represent the light of faith, and the fervor of charity, which the Gospel inculcates. They are also expressive of spiritual life and joy. "Throughout all the churches of the East," says St. Jerome, "when the Gospel is to be read, though the sun shines, torches are used, not to chase away darkness, but for a sign of joy."

The Crucifix is placed in the middle of the Altar, to represent to our minds the passion and death of Jesus Christ, which are chiefly to be considered and piously meditated upon in this Holy Sacrifice.

The Amice, a linen cloth which the Priest pulls over his head, and fastens round his neck, signifies the linen with which the Jews blindfolded our Saviour in mockery when they smote him and buffeted him, saying: "Prophesy unto us, O Christ! who is he that struck you?"—Matt. xxvi. 68.

The Alb represents the white garment which Herod put upon Christ after he had despised and mocked him.—Luke xxiii. 11.

The Maniple that the Priest wears on his left arm, the Stole that he hangs down from his neck, and the Girdle, figure the cords and fetters with which the officers of the Jews bound Christ, and led him from one place to another. —John xviii. 12–24.

The Chasuble, or upper garment, represents the purple garment which the soldiers put upon Jesus Christ, and the heavy cross that he carried on his blessed shoulders to Mount Calvary.

As to the colors of the ornaments with which the Priest celebrates the Holy Mysteries, the White is used on the Festivals of our Lord, of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and of all the saints who are not martyrs.

The Red is used on Pentecost, on the Invention and Exaltation of the Cross, and on the Feasts of the Apostles and Martyrs.

The Purple or Violet, which is the penitential color, is used on all the Sundays and Ferias of Advent, and during the whole of the penitential time from Septuagesima Sunday till Easter; as also on all Vigils, Ember-Days, and Rogation-Days, when the Office is of them, and on the feast of the Holy Innocents.

The Green is used on all Sundays and Ferias from Trinity-Sunday to Advent exclusively, and from the Octave of the Epiphany to Septuagesima Sunday, exclusively, when the Office is of the Sunday; but in Paschal time the White is used.

The Black is used on Good Friday, and in Masses of Requiem for the dead, which may be said on any day that is not a Sunday or a Double, except from Palm Sunday to Low Sunday, and during the Octaves of Christmas, of the Epiphany, of Pentecost, and of Corpus Christi.

1. On the Anniversary of the Consecration of a Bishop the solemn Votive Mass of Consecration should be celebrated in the Cathedral Church. If the Anniversary fall on a Sunday of the 1st Class, within Holy Week, on Easter, Pentecost, Christmas, etc., the Anniversary Mass should (for that year) be omitted. Should it occur upon a Sunday in Lent, the prayer for the Bishop must be said in the "Mass of the time." Throughout the diocese, the commemoration of the same anniversary must be made by every priest with the prayer "Deus omnium fidelium" in the Votive Mass of the Anniversary of the Consecration of a Bishop. This commemoration, however, should be omitted when the Anniversary occurs on Festivals of the 1st Class, Holy Thursday, Holy Saturday, or on any of the Sundays which admit only one prayer at Mass. But on Sundays and feasts of the 2d Class the Commemoration is made with one ending.

2. The Mass for the Transfer of a Bishop must be celebrated in the Church over which he is last placed; and throughout the diocese the commemoration must be on the Anniversary of the Transfer.

3. By an Apostolic Indult, dated February 7, 1847, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the B. V. M., unless it fall on Sunday, is to be transferred to the following Sunday, on which the private as well as the solemn Masses are celebrated of the feast. It is also made the Patronal Feast of the United States. The commemorations proper to the day are to be observed according to the Rubrics.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF THE LATE BISHOP OF BOSTON.

John Bernard Fitzpatrick, Bishop of Boston, was born in that city, in November, 1812. His college studies were made in Montreal, Canada, where his amiable disposition and fine intellectual qualities won for him the love and admiration alike of preceptors and fellow-students. From Montreal he went to College S. Sulpice in Paris, to finish his theological course. He was ordained there in 1840, and very soon after his return to his own country was appointed pastor of St. John's church, in East-Cambridge, Mass. He remained there but a short time, being soon after appointed coadjutor to Bishop Fenwick, of Boston, and was consecrated in 1844. Two years later, by the death of the venerable Bishop Fenwick, he became Bishop of Boston. He twice visited Europe after becoming bishop; once, in 1854, on episcopal affairs, and again in search of health, in 1862. But health he was not to find; for after his return home it was seen that his disease had grown worse rather than better; and after lingering for months in a state of great bodily suffering, he at length sank under his fatal malady, and calmly breathed his last in his episcopal city on the 13th of February, 1866, strengthened and consoled by the last sacraments of the Church, and surrounded by bishops and priests, the friends and companions of Jesus.

We copy the following appreciative remarks of this eminent and much lamented prelate from the New-York Tablet of the 24th of February, 1866:

"By the death of the lamented Bishop of Boston, the Catholic Church of the United States has lost one of her brightest ornaments, one of her most loved and gifted prelates. The melancholy event, though long expected, is none the less saddening in its effects on the Catholic community. The shadow of death falls darkly ever, but it settles down with leaden weight on the hearts of men when the great and good are called hence by the Great Summoner. And who will deny that of this class was John Bernard Fitzpatrick, Bishop of Boston, whose loss the Catholics of that city, and of all the extensive diocese of which he was the chief pastor, mourn to-day, as children are wont to mourn a beloved father? Loved, admired, gifted, he filled with honor and with dignity the high position to which he was called by Almighty God, ruling his clergy and his people with so mild a sway that he was obeyed from love no less than from duty. Even those outside the Church loved 'Bishop John,' as he was affectionately called by the Boston people amongst whom he was born and grew up to manhood, and his presence to many of the first Protestant families was indispensable in their social reunions. He was, indeed, a man to win all hearts, whether you considered him in his noble and dignified exterior, reminding you of the Roman patrician of old, in the grace and polish of his manners, the conversational talents with which he was endowed, or the goodness of heart and singleness of purpose, the simplicity of character, which endeared him to all who had the happiness of his acquaintance. But Bishop Fitzpatrick had higher endowments even than these, which only the learned and the chosen few could appreciate. His varied learning, his wisdom, his philosophical and theological attainments, his deep and solid piety, his firm, unwavering faith, his boundless devotion to the Church and her Chief Pastor; these were the qualities that made John Bernard of Boston hold so high a place amongst the prelates of the American Church, and will secure for him the lasting remembrance of his venerable brethren in the episcopate.

"The character of Bishop Fitzpatrick was singularly adapted to soften and refine all around him; no bitter, acrimonious feelings ever existed in his own kindly, benevolent heart, so none were ever entertained toward himself. No resentment, no ill-will, no sense of wrong or injustice died when he died, or was buried with him, and therefore it is that the tears of high and low, of prelates, priests, and laity, bedewed the earth above him when he was laid in his narrow bed, the house appointed for all living. Too early for those who loved him he was called away, but his failing health had prevented him from accomplishing his full measure of usefulness to the Church for some time past, and we are sure that the death-summons found him well pleased to go and lay down at the feet of his Divine Master the heavy burden he had borne so meekly and so Christianly. May his soul rest forever in the peace and the glory of heaven!"

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF THE LATE BISHOP YOUNG, OF ERIE.

The American Church has sustained this year another heavy loss in the death of the Right Rev. Josue M. Young, Bishop of Erie. His death, though long foreseen by his friends, came suddenly at last; its immediate cause was heart disease.

The deceased prelate was born in Sanford, Maine, in August, 1808, of Protestant parents. He served his apprenticeship to the printing business in the office of the Portland Argus. Although brought up a Protestant, he early in life saw and embraced the truth, and at the age of nineteen was received into the Catholic Church. In his twenty-second year he set out to make a tour of the Western States, in the capacity of a journeyman printer. He finally settled at Cincinnati, where he was employed in the office of the Catholic Telegraph. By his zeal in teaching the catechism and promoting religion, he soon attracted the notice of the bishop, who, discerning in him talents of a very high order, with many estimable qualities, sent him to Mount St. Mary's College, Emmettsburgh, to complete his studies and prepare for the sacred ministry. In 1837 he was ordained, and labored for many years with great zeal and success in the then diocese, now archdiocese of Cincinnati. In the year 1853, the new diocese of Erie being formed from part of the diocese of Pittsburgh, Bishop O'Connor was translated from Pittsburgh to the new see, and Rev. Mr. Young, at that time pastor of St. Mary's, Lancaster, Ohio, was appointed to succeed him. Such was the humility of Dr. Young, however, that he would fain decline the honor of being raised to the episcopacy, and earnestly besought the Holy Father to allow him to decline accepting the appointment. His request was granted in so far as Pittsburgh was concerned, but he was immediately appointed to the see of Erie, Bishop O'Connor being retranslated to Pittsburgh. He was consecrated in the Cathedral of Cincinnati, on Low Sunday, 1854.

Once entered on this new and vast field of labor, Bishop Young devoted all the powers of his strong mind, all the energy of his character, and all the eloquence of which he was master, to promote the interests of religion in that portion of the Lord's vineyard committed to his care. With the limited means at his command, and the thin and widely-scattered Catholic population of the new diocese, for all aid, the gifted and holy prelate accomplished great things, and has left behind him many a substantial monument of his zeal and charity. The diocese of Erie may well rejoice in the exalted character of her first bishop, and mourn the loss of a chief pastor so earnest, so energetic, so zealous, so devoted.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF THE LATE REV. JEREMIAH W. CUMMINGS, D.D.

The beloved and venerated pastor of St. Stephen's Church, East Twenty-eighth street, New-York, departed this life on January fourth, 1866.

Dr. Cummings was born in Washington, District of Columbia, on April fifth, 1823, and was consequently at the time of his demise in the forty-second year of his age. He was of Irish descent, his ancestors having emigrated to this country from the north of Ireland about the year 1782, during our Revolution. After his preliminary studies at an early age in this country, he proceeded to Rome; and after fourteen years' study at the college of the Propaganda he graduated with high honor. He was first attached to the Cathedral in Mulberry street, in this city, on his return to his native country in 1848; but in 1856 he built St. Stephen's Church, of which he remained the honored and revered pastor until the day of his death.

In personal appearance Dr. Cummings was dignified and commanding; his manner simple and affable. He was very popular and attractive as a lecturer, and as an orator was graceful and impressive. He was an accomplished linguist, and leaves a void in the American Church which will not soon be filled.

SKETCH OF THE REV. JOHN KELLY, JERSEY CITY, N. J.

The Rev. John Kelly, for twenty-six years the revered pastor of St. Peter's Church, Jersey City, was born near the town of Trillick, county Tyrone, Ireland, in the year 1805. His first studies were made in the college of Newry; but his ardent zeal for the missionary field soon manifesting itself, he emigrated to America about the year 1825. He completed his theological studies at Mount St. Mary's, and was elevated to the sacred dignity of the priesthood by Bishop Dubois, in 1833. His first charge was as assistant priest at St. Patrick's Cathedral, and his first mission embraced the whole of the north-eastern portion of the State of New-York. In 1837 he was appointed pastor of a newly-erected parish in Albany; and purchased from a Protestant congregation St. John's Church, the second Catholic church in Albany. In 1840 he accompanied Bishop Barron in his missionary expedition to Africa, together with several other priests, to carry the light of the true faith to the benighted negro. His health, however, finally yielded to the deadly fevers incident to the climate, and he was obliged to return to America, and in 1843 was installed pastor of old St. Peter's Church, then the only Catholic church in Jersey City. At his death he left behind him no less than four churches built by himself; but he was not permitted to realize the cherished wish of his heart—the completion of the magnificent new church of St. Peter, one of the finest ecclesiastical edifices in the diocese of Newark. He died on the morning of April 28th, universally lamented.

City of Macon, Church of the Assumption, Rev. William Hamilton, Rev. F. O'Neill, Jr.

Atlanta, Church of the Immaculate Conception, Rev. James Hasson, now absent on account of sickness; Rev. Thomas O'Reilly. The city of Atlanta has suffered awfully from the war, but the Church was providentially saved, and the Catholics are returning fast to their homes.

Columbus, Church of St. Philip and St. James, Rev. Michael Cullinan.

MISSIONS ATTENDED FROM THE ABOVE-MENTIONED CITIES.

Attended from Augusta: First, Locust Grove, an old Catholic settlement of the Diocese, with a church, under the title of the Purification of the B.V.M., and a regularly consecrated graveyard. The settlement was partially abandoned by the former inhabitants, but offers great inducements to Catholic settlers. It is visited once a month from Augusta, on the second week of the month, and on Sunday every other month. Second, Washington County; there is here also a small church, attended once a month from Augusta, as the preceding place. Third, stations on the Georgia road and its branches, Athens, Union Point, Greensboro, Sparta, etc.

Attended from Macon: Albany, where there is a brick church recently built; Americus, Cuthbert, Milledgeville, Eatonton, Hawkinsville, Fort Valley, etc., and generally families on the South-Western road and the Central road.

Attended from Atlanta: Dalton, where there was a small elegant church, which was destroyed by fire toward the end of the war; Rome, Jonesborough, Newnan, Lagrange, Springplace, Murray Co., etc.

Attended from Columbus: West-Point, Fort Gaines, Chattahoochee, Butler, etc.

RELIGIOUS, EDUCATIONAL, AND CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.

Convent of the Sisters of our Lady of Mercy, Savannah. This is a branch of an Order, founded by the illustrious Dr. England, Bishop of Charleston, where the nuns renew the vows of religion every year, and live under a rule approved by the Bishop. The community of Savannah counts 16 professed sisters and 3 novices. Mother Agnes, Superioress.

Male Orphan Asylum, attached to the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist, under the supervision of the Bishop. It has now 26 small boys.

Female Orphan Asylum, under the superintendence of the Sisters of Mercy. There are now 20 orphan girls in the institution.

There are now four Catholic schools for boys in Savannah, with an aggregate number of about 300 boys.

Academy of St. Vincent of Paul, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, designed for boarders. It had lately nearly 100 young ladies; it has now about 28. The rooms and grounds of the academy are spacious and convenient for the accommodation of boarders.

The Sisters keep also day-schools, and a free school for the instruction of the girls of the city of Savannah.

The Society of Our Lady Help of Christians, among the Catholic ladies of Savannah, for the relief of the poor.

Augusta.—Convent of the Sisters of Mercy. This is a branch of the community of Savannah, under the control of the House of Savannah. Local Superior, Mother Vincent. The Sisters of Augusta keep an orphan asylum, an academy for young girls, and also a free school.

Macon.—The Sisters of Mercy in Savannah have sent a colony of Sisters to Macon, where they have opened a school for girls.

Columbus.—Convent of the Sisters of Mercy. This convent, established in Columbus during the war, is a dependence of a community of the same name in St. Augustine. The community belongs to the order founded by Mother McAuley, in Dublin.

Atlanta.—The pastor of Atlanta has last year built a splendid convent, where the Sisters of Mercy will keep a boarding-school for girls, and a day-school for the convenience of the children of Atlanta.

Climate.—The soil and the climate of Georgia invite settlers to come here and work to their own advantage the agricultural resources of the State, which are inexhaustible. Catholics are not advised to settle in the midst of sectarian districts, far from any Catholic Church, where they and their children would be exposed to the danger of shipwreck in the faith. But if they understand gardening, and have a small capital, they will find, in the vicinity of cities, rich lots, which will repay well their industry.

INSTITUTIONS.

Academy of Mount St. Mary's, Omaha City, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy. Besides the usual branches of a solid English education, the modern languages are taught, vocal and instrumental music, drawing and painting, etc.

The terms for board and tuition are $250 per annum. The vacancies for the present year, which commenced on the first Monday in September, and will close early in July, are all filled, most of the pupils being Protestants. They have, moreover, a select day-school in the Institution.

Academy, at Nebraska City, conducted by the Sisters of the Benedictine Order. The substantial and ornamental branches of education are taught, under the direction of Mother Beatrice, Prioress of the Institution. Although this Institution has been but a short time in existence, it has been favored with the kind patronage of both Catholics and Protestants, owing chiefly to the energy and perseverance of the Rev. Emanuel Hartig, O.S.B., Pastor of the Mission.

Day-Schools, at Omaha City, under the patronage of St. Philip Neri, for boys and girls. They are under the direction of the Sisters of Mercy.

Day-Schools, at Nebraska City, conducted by the Rev. E. Hartig, O.S.B., and the Sisters of the Benedictine Order.

Sunday-Schools, in those missions where there is a priest stationed.

With regard to schools in general, we are deficient in this Territory, for want of necessary funds, and must, therefore, conform in a great measure to those nnder the Board; endeavoring at all times to have Catholic teachers appointed.

CHURCH ACCOMMODATION

is also a sad necessity. Except two, our churches are all built of wood; many of them of rough logs. It is quite true that the Cross—the emblem of our faith—was raised on our little brick church in Omaha City, before any of the weeds of Protestantism had sprung up; but the church is now far too small for the present congregation, besides being totally unfit for the celebration of the Pontifical offices. The foundations of a new church have been built, but, from want of funds, the work has had to be suspended. The Bishop thanks those who have already kindly contributed to this necessary work, and solicits further help from those whom God has blessed with worldly means, and which he can not hope for at home, that a fitting temple for the dwelling of the God of peace may be established here, where, but a few years ago, was heard only the war cry of the Indian.

✠ A. M. A. Blanchet, Bp. of N.

Province of Oregon City.

THIS Province includes the Dioceses of Oregon City, Nesqualy, Vancouver Island, and the Vicariate Apostolic of British Columbia.

PRELIMINARY REMARKS.

The Western Catholic Mission of Oregon was commenced by Very Rev. F. N. Blanchet, Vicar-General of Quebec, and Rev. M. Demers. They were sent by the Right Rev. Bishop of Quebec. The latter left Canada for Red River in 1837; the former left Montreal the third of May, 1838, both leaving Red River the tenth of July. They arrived at Fort Vancouver November 24, 1838, having passed the summit of the Rocky Mountains, October 10, by the fifty-second degree of latitude.

The Eastern Catholic, or Rocky Mountain Mission, was opened by Rev. Father De Smet, S.J., in a flying visit made to the Flat Heads in 1840. Having ascertained their good disposition, he came back among them in 1841, with two other Fathers, and founded St. Mary's Mission of the Rocky Mountains, which continued with great success during nine or ten years, and was suddenly abandoned, on account of a change of dispositions in that tribe.

The Catholic Mission of Oregon, extending from the Pacific to the Rocky Mountains, between the forty-second degree on the south, and the Glacial Sea on the north, was erected into a Vicariate Apostolic, and the Very Rev. F. N. Blanchet appointed its Vicar-Apostolic, with the title of Bishop of Philadelphia, in partibus infidelium, by a Brief of December 1, 1843, which title was changed into that of Drasa, by Apostolic Letters of May 4, 1844.

The Vicariate Apostolic of Oregon was erected into an Ecclesiastical Province with the erection of three Sees, by Apostolic Letters of June 24, 1846; Right Rev. Bishop of Drasa being called to the Metropolitan See of Oregon City, Rt. Rev. A. M. A. Blanchet to that of Walla-Walla, and Rt. Rev. M. Demers to that of Vancouver Island. The See of Walla-Walla having been suppressed, the Bishop of Walla-Walla was translated to the See of Nesqualy by Apostolic Letters of May 31, 1850.

Irish Ecclesiastical Register.

IRELAND is divided, ecclesiastically, into four provinces, named after the four Archiepiscopal Sees, Armagh, Dublin, Cashel, and Tuam, which are not coincident with the civil provinces in which they are respectively situated. The Province of Armagh, containing the Primatial See of All Ireland, embraces, besides the civil Province of Ulster, the whole or portions of the counties of Louth, Meath, Westmeath, King's, and Longford, in Leinster, with Leitrim, Sligo, and Roscommon, in Connaught; the Province of Dublin, under the Primate of Ireland, contains a portion only of the civil Province of Leinster, embracing the whole or portions of the counties of Dublin, Kildare, Wicklow, Queen's, Wexford, Carlow, King's, Meath, and Kilkenny; the Province of Cashel is mainly coincident with the civil Province of Munster, a small portion of the north of Clare—the Diocese of Kilmacduagh—being suffragan to Tuam; while the Province of Tuam is smaller than the civil Province of Connaught, and includes the whole or portions of the counties of Galway, Mayo, Sligo, Roscommon, Clare, and King's.

Jacksonville, Duval Co., Church of the Immaculate Conception, Rev. J. F. B. Chambon. The church of Jacksonville, together with the parochial residence, which was a large and comfortable building, was destroyed by fire during the war. The officers of the Government, regretting this sad occurrence, have given boards to put up a temporary shelter to assemble the Catholics of the place. They are unable to rebuild the church and the house; it is therefore intended, as soon as circumstances will allow, to call on the sympathy and liberality of the Catholics of the North to remove, as soon as possible, these sad vestiges of the late troubles in the country.

St. Mary's Convent. This is a convent of the Order founded by Mother McAuley. The sisters keep an academy and a free school.

REMARK.—Catholic gardeners and farmers who would like a pleasant and healthy place to settle in, would do well to try the neighborhood of St. Augustine. The place was originally settled by Catholics, and the Catholic element prevails there yet to this day. The country is well adapted to the cultivation of the vine. The black grape, which gives a red wine, very good for the table,

* Republished from Almanac of 1866, no report for this year having been received.

and the purple grape, which gives a white wine similar to the Sauterne and to the Champagne, grow in St. Augustine with astonishing luxuriance. It is also believed that the insect which has for some years back blighted the prospects of Florida, has now disappeared, and that delicious oranges can be obtained everywhere as heretofore. Honest, industrious settlers, furnished with a small capital, can scarcely meet with a failure.

AMERICAN GARDEN SEEDS.

The following extract from an article in the Atlantic Monthly, April, 1863,) may convey to our country readers a clearer idea of the extent and details of garden-seed culture than heretofore entertained. Bloomsdale, the estate refered to, is the seed farm of our friends, David Landreth & Son, of Philadelphia.—Littell's Living Age.

"Though our sketch of the present state of horticulture among us is quite imperfect, affording but an indistinct glimpse of the ample field which invites our view, it would scarcely be pardonable were we to overlook a branch of rural industry in which horticultural success is interested, and without which the practical pleasures and family comfort of rural homes would be greatly abridged. We refer to garden-seed culture. It may be that the purchaser of a paper of seed for the kitchen garden seldom stops to consider the minute care which has been required to secure its purity; most probably, in many cases, he makes the purchase as though it were the mere product of mechanical skill, which, after the machinery is perfected, and the steam-engine has been set in motion, turns out the finished article, of use or ornament, with scarcely an effort of mind to direct its movements. Not so in the production of seeds; many are the hours of watchful care to be bestowed upon it, and stern and unyielding are its demands on the skilled eye and untiring hand. It is because, in some cases, the eye is not skilled, and the hand often tires, that so many seeds of more than doubtful worth are imposed upon the market, filling the village cross-road shops with the germs of disappointment. The history of the seed culture in the United States is not without interest to those who, like many readers of the Atlantic, reside in the quiet country; to every family thus situated, the certainty of obtaining seeds of trustworthy quality—certain to vegetate, and sure to prove true to name—is of more importance than can be appreciated by those who rely upon the city market, and have at all times and seasons ample supplies of vegetables within easy reach. On looking around for some individual establishment which we may use as a representative of this branch of industry, we naturally turn to Bloomsdale, as the most prominent and widest known of seed farms; and if the reader will join us in a trip thither, we shall be pleased with his company, and perchance he may not wholly regret the time occupied in the excursion. The period we shall choose for the visit is the close of the month of June.

"On a bright day we take our seats in the cars at Jersey City, provided with the talisman to insure an attentive reception. Onward we whirl through fertile fields and smiling villages; Newark, Brunswick, Princeton are successively passed; shortly we reach the Delaware at Trenton; a run of a few miles through Penn's Manor, the garden spot of the Proprietary Governor, brings us to Bristol, the station from which we most readily reach our destination. As we approach the grounds from the front, a prominent object meets the eye, a noble white pine of gigantic proportions, somewhat the worse for many a winter's storm, but which still stands in all its majestic grandeur, as it has stood whilst generations have come and passed away. On entering the premises, we find ourselves in the midst of a lawn of ten acres, in the English style. To enumerate the various trees, in groups or single specimens, which most invite our notice, would interfere with the main object of our visit. We have come for a special purpose, and we can only allude to a very few of the species to which our attention may be supposed to be directed. A white spruce, in rich luxuriance, measuring, as the branches trail upon the sward, upward of sixty feet in circumference; the Himalayan white pine, with its deep fringe-like foliage twenty-five feet in height; the Cephalonian fir, with leaves as pungent as an Auricaria, twenty feet high, and many specimens of the same kind, of nearly equal magnitude; yews, of more than a half-century's growth; a purple beech, of thirty feet in height, its branches as many in circumference, contrasting with the green around; numerous specimens of the balm of Gilead, silver firs, and Norway spruces, unsurpassed in beauty or form, the last presenting every variety of habit in which it delights to sport: these are some of the gems of the lawn. But we must hurry onward to the practical business in view.

"The harvest, which, in seed culture, lasts for many consecutive weeks, has just commenced. The first important crop that ripens is the turnip—which is now being cut. The work is performed by the use of grass-hooks or toothless sickles; stem after stem is cut, until the hand is full, when they are deposited in canvas sheets; as these are filled, boys stand ready to spread others; men follow to tie up those which have been filled; others succeed, driving teams, and loading wagons, with ample shelvings, with sheetful piled on sheetful, until the sturdy oxen are required to test their strength in drawing them to the drying-houses; arrived there, each sheetful is separately removed by rope and tackle, and the contents deposited on the skeleton scaffolding within the building, there to remain until the seed is sufficiently cured and dry enough to thresh. These drying-houses are buildings of uniform character, two stories in height and fifty feet square, constructed so as to expose their contents to sun and air, and each provided with a carefully-laid threshing-floor, extending through the building, with pent-house for movable engine. When the houses are full and the hulm in a fit state for threshing, the engine is started and the work begun. One man, relieved by others from time to time, (for this labor requires activity, and consequently is exhausting,) feeds the thresher, which, with its armed teeth, moves with such velocity as to appear like a solid cylinder. Here there is no stopping for horses to take breath and rest their weary limbs—puff, puff, onward the work—steam as great a triumph in threshing as in printing or spinning. Men and boys are stationed at the rear of the thresher to remove the straw, and roughly separate the seed from the shattered hulm—others again being engaged in thrusting the dried crop from the scaffolds, and placing it in suitable position for the feeders. When one drying-house has thus been emptied, the engine is removed to another; the same process is pursued until the circuit of the buildings has been made, and thus the ceaseless round (ceaseless at least for a season) is continued. As soon as the crop in the first house has been threshed, the work of winnowing is commenced, and skilled hands thus engaged follow on in the track of the engine. As each crop is cleaned and put in merchantable order, it is placed in bags of two bushels each, and carried to the store-houses and granaries, there to await a requisition from the city warehouse.

"We have just witnessed the process of saving the crop of turnip-seed. And how much may that reach? is a natural inquiry. Of all the varieties, including the ruta baga, about one thousand bushels is the response. We should have thought a thousand pounds would supply the entire Union; but we are reminded that it is in part exported to far distant lands. And what is the crop so much like the turnip, but still green, and apparently of more vigorous growth? That is one of the varieties of cabbage, of which several standard kinds are under cultivation. Another adjoining is radish; still another, beet; and thus we pass from kind to kind, until we have exhausted a long catalogue of sorts.

"Let us stop our walk over the grounds for a few moments, taking seats under the shadow of a tree, and make some inquiries as to the place itself, its extent, the course of culture, the description of manures used, etc. Our cicerone assents to the proposal, and proceeds to answer our general inquiries. Bloomsdale contains, in round numbers, four hundred acres; [recent additions make a total of six hundred acres under the personal charge and superintendence of the proprietors;] it has a frontage on the Delaware of upward of a mile, is bounded on the west by the Delaware Canal, and is divided into two nearly equal parts by the Philadelphia and Trenton Railroad. The soil is a light loam, easily worked, suited to rapid percolation, admitting of labor immediately after heavy rain, and not liable to suffer by drought. The manures used are principally crude, obtained from the city, and landed on the premises from shallops continually plying, laden with the 'sinews of farming.' Street-scrapings are more used than stable manure; bone-dust and guano enter largely into the account; and the aggregate annual expenditure foots up a sum almost equivalent to the fee-simple of an ordinary farm. The culture is that denominated drill; but, of course, much of it is simply straight lines drawn by the plow, in which the roots for seeding are planted by hand.

"The ground, with the exception of the lawn and a portion occupied from time to time by grass for home use, is divided by wagon-roads into squares and parallelograms; cross fences are not used; and each crop forms a distinct feature, accessible at any stage of growth. The several varieties of each kind, as, for instance, those of turnip, cabbage, beet, lettuce, are planted widely apart, to guard against possible admixture; but the chances of that result must be much less than is popularly supposed, efforts having been used experimentally to test its practicability, and that between kindred closely allied, without success. Although the extent of the grounds would appear to be formidable even for a farm conducted in the usual mode, it is insufficient for the demands on the proprietors, without diligent exertion and prompt re-cropping—two crops in each year being exacted, only a small part of the land escaping double duty, the extent annually plowed thus amounting to nearly twice the area of the farm. The heavy hauling is performed by oxen, the culture principally by mules, which are preferred to horses as being less liable to injury, and better adapted to the narrow drill culture practiced.

"The seeds of Bloomsdale have attained a world-wide reputation, and, to quote an expression used in reference to them, 'are almost as well known on the Ganges as on the Mississippi or Ohio.' They are regularly exported to the British possessions in India, to the shores of the Pacific, throughout the West Indies, and occasionally to Australia. The drier atmosphere of this country ripens them better than the humid climate of England, adapting them to exportation; and it is no slight triumph to see them preferred by Englishmen on British soil. At home, thousands of homesteads, south and west of Philadelphia, were, until interrupted by the war, supplied with Landreth's Seeds. The business, founded nearly three quarters of a century ago, is now conducted by the second and third generations of the family with which it originated. Thus has success been achieved through long and patient industry steadily directed to the same pursuits, and a reputation built up for American seeds, despite the want of national protection."

49 WEST FIFTEENTH STREET,

Between Fifth and Sixth Avenues,

NEW-YORK CITY.

This Literary Institution, incorporated with the privileges of a university, by the Regents of the University of the State of New-York, is conducted by the Fathers of the Society of Jesus.

It affords the twofold advantage of a complete Classical and Catholic education.

The Course of Studies is divided into two distinct departments—the Classical and the Commercial.

The Classical Course embraces the Greek, Latin, English, and French Languages; Rhetoric, Poetry, Elocution, History, Geography, Mythology; a complete course of Mathematics, Chemistry, Natural, Intellectual, and Moral Philosophy.

The Commercial Course, which is completed in three years, comprises the English and French Languages; English Literature, Elocution, History, Geography, Mythology, the use of Globes, Book-keeping, Arithmetic, Mathematics, and Natural Philosophy.

Besides the Classical and Commercial Courses, there are four preparatory classes for younger students, in which they are carefully taught Spelling, Reading, Writing, English Grammar, Geography, History, and Arithmetic, so as to fit them for the higher branches of study.

When a student presents himself for admission, he is examined and placed in the class for which his previous acquirements have prepared him.

Punctual attendance is earnestly recommended; hence, in case of absence, a note from the parents or guardians is required, who shall be informed of the non-attendance of their children or wards.

Monthly reports of behavior, application, and progress are sent to parents and guardians. To insure success, private study at home should be insisted on.

There are two examinations—one in February; the other, for promotion, at the close of the collegiate year.

During the course of the year, any student found fit for a higher class may be promoted thereto, and this promotion is equivalent to the honors of the class from which he passed.

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts must stand an examination in Natural, Intellectual, and Moral Philosophy, and in Mathematics.

Within the precincts of the College two court-yards, entirely cut off from the street, are reserved for recreation, so that the students are entirely secluded, and continually under the eyes of their prefects and professors, from the time of their arrival, at nine o'clock in the morning, until that of their departure, at a quarter past three in the afternoon.

MANHATTAN COLLEGE,

(CHRISTIAN BROTHERS,)

MANHATTANVILLE, NEW-YORK,

This institution, incorporated and empowered to confer Degrees by the Regents of the University of the State of New-York, offers many advantages to further the moral, intellectual, and physical development of students. The situation of the College is not surpassed in landscape beauty or salubrity by that of any similar institution in the country. It occupies an elevated position on the east bank of the Hudson, beside the village of Manhattanville, about eight miles from New-York City.

Its object is to afford the youth of our country the means of acquiring the highest grade of education attained in the best American universities or colleges. While its conductors mean that the classic languages shall be thoroughly studied, they have resolved to give a prominence to the higher mathematics and natural sciences not hitherto received in any similar institution in this country; thus combining the advantages of a first-class College and Polytechnic Institute.

Before receiving any degree, the classical student will be required not only to be able to translate with facility any classic author, whether Greek or Latin, whose style he has studied; he must also be able to express his ideas orally as well as in writing, with more or less fluency, at least in the latter language; whereas the mathematical student seeking similar distinction must extend his scientific knowledge so as to embrace the differential and integral calculus, together with astronomy, chemistry, etc.

The Faculty believe that neither the classics nor the mathematics claim more earnest attention, in order to constitute a sound and practical education, than the vernacular language and literature; and accordingly their study is never intermitted at this institution, but is continued throughout the whole course, in every form which has received the approval of the most experienced and successful educators.

Besides being carefully instructed in the analytical principles of the language, every student is required not only to take part in oral discussions on rhetoric, logic, moral philosophy, etc., but he must also write English essays on various subjects, which are, in turn, subjected to the criticisms of the whole class, as well as to those of the professor having charge of that department.

Although the regular preparatory schools of the college are the De La Salle Institute, 46 Second Street, and Manhattan Academy, 127 West Thirty-second Street, New-York, another has been established at the college for the benefit of those who wish to send their children to the institution at an early age.

COLLEGE OF THE HOLY CROSS,

WORCESTER, MASS.

This College was founded solely for the education of Catholics, by the Right Rev. Benedict Joseph Fenwick, Bishop of Boston, in the year 1843, and by him given to the Fathers of the Society of Jesus. The location is remarkably healthy. One hundred and twenty-five acres of land are attached to the College. It stands on Bogachoag, or Hill of Pleasant Springs, within two miles of the city of Worcester, and commands an extensive view of the beautiful country around. The water is abundant, and of the first quality, the play-grounds are spacious, and afford facilities for healthful amusements at all seasons.

After the usual course of Arithmetic and Book-keeping, the students, according to their proficiency and capacity, are placed in different classes of Mathematics.

There are three classes of French, in which the students are distributed according to their abilities.

There are two semi-annual examinations. If, at the first examination, any one be found to have sufficiently improved, he is promoted to a higher class. Such promotions will be equivalent to the honors of the class left.

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts are required to undergo an examination in Intellectual, Moral, and Natural Philosophy, before the Faculty of the College. They must besides have pursued the regular classical course.

Careful attention is bestowed on the religious and moral training of the students, who, even in hours of recreation, are under the special superintendence of Prefects or Disciplinarians.

Books, Papers, Periodicals, etc., are not allowed circulation among the students, without having been previously revised by one of the Faculty.

Each student must be supplied with at least two suits of daily wear, and one for Sundays, six shirts, six pairs of stockings, six pocket-handkerchiefs, six towels, two or three cravats, etc., two or three pairs of boots or shoes, an overcoat or cloak. Reports will be sent to parents or guardians, to inform them of the application, conduct, and progress of their sons or wards. Also, regular accounts, in advance, for Board and Tuition. It is earnestly requested that immediate remittances be made to the full amount.

The Collegiate Year commences on the first Monday of September, but students are received at any period of the year. Applicants from other institutions will not be received without testimonials as to character and conduct from the Principal of the institution which they last attended.

The object of the Institution is to prepare youths for a Professional or for a Commercial state of life.

ST. LOUIS UNIVERSITY,

ST. LOUIS, MO.

The St. Louis University was founded in 1829, by members of the Society of Jesus. In 1832, it was incorporated by an Act of the State Legislature, and empowered to confer the usual academic honors.

The Collegiate Department comprises two distinct courses of study—the Classical and the Commercial. The Classical course is designed to impart a thorough knowledge of the English, Latin, and Greek languages; of Mental and Moral Philosophy; of pure and mixed Mathematics, and of the Physical Sciences. It is completed in six years. The students in this course are divided, according to their proficiency, into six classes, which correspond with the six years of the course. The Commercial course, which extends through four years, embraces all the branches of a good English education. When a student is admitted, he is examined by the Prefect of Studies, and placed in the class which his previous attainments have qualified him to enter.

The Academic Year consists of one session, beginning on the first Monday of September, and ending about the 4th of July. Students are admitted at any time during the session.

The University possesses a valuable Museum, and a complete Philosophical and Chemical apparatus. The College Library numbers about fifteen thousand volumes, exclusive of seven thousand volumes in the select libraries, which are open to the students.

COLLEGE

CHRISTIAN BROTHERS,

ST. LOUIS, MO., 1866-67.

This Literary Institution possesses all the advantages of an agreeable and healthy location, easy of access, being situated on a rising ground a little south-west of the Pacific Railroad terminus, in the city of St. Louis, Missouri. It was founded in 1851 by the Brothers of the Christian Schools, incorporated in 1855 by the State Legislature, and empowered to confer degrees and academical honors. However favorable the auspices under which it commenced its literary career, its progress since has surpassed all anticipation. Growing equally in public confidence and in the number of students, it has gone on extending its reputation. Repeated additions have been made to the original buildings.

Every possible attention is paid to whatever can contribute to the health and happiness of its inmates—ventilation, cleanliness, spacious halls, dormitories, refectory, recreation halls for cold or damp weather, etc., etc.

The various arts and sciences usually taught in colleges find here an appropriate place in a system of education established by experience, conducted on the most approved plan, and with a devotedness commensurate with the greatness of the work engaged in. By reason of the great number of classes, a thorough gradation for all capacities and acquirements has been attained, and the frequent examinations and promotions beget emulation, the soul of advancement, making labor a pleasure, and success a certainty.

The course of instruction pursued in the Academy is divided into three departments: the primary, the intermediate, and the collegiate. There is, besides, an exclusively commercial course, offering rare advantages to young gentlemen who intend to make business their profession. It is divided into three classes, in which the chief place is given to instruction in Book-keeping, Arithmetic, Geography and History, Business Forms and Correspondence, Epistolary Composition, Penmanship, etc., with Lectures on Commercial Law, Political Economy, etc. Diplomas can be obtained in the Commercial department by such as merit that distinction.

The session commences on the last Monday in August, and ends about the 3d of July with an annual public examination, a distribution of premiums, and the conferring of degrees and academical honors.

On the completion of the course, the degree of A. B. is conferred upon such students as, on examination, are found worthy of that distinction. The degree of A. M. can be obtained by graduates in the first degree after two years devoted to some scientific or literary pursuit, their moral character remaining unexceptionable.

The government is a union of mildness and firmness, energy and kindness, a blending of paternal solicitude with fraternal sympathy; the results of which are contentment, good order, and happiness. The morals and general deportment of the students are constantly watched over; the Brothers preside at their recreations, and their comfort and personal habits receive every attention.

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME,

Indiana, St. Joseph Co.

CHARTERED IN 1844.

This Institution is situated in the lovely valley of the St. Joseph, scarcely a mile from that river, and on the banks of two beautiful lakes of clear spring water. It is in the midst of a healthy and healthy farming region, and by means of two great trunk lines of railroad—the Michigan Central and the Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana, the latter of which passes within a mile of the College grounds—is easily and quickly accessible from every part of the country. At the Michigan Southern Railroad depot, at South Bend, omnibuses or private conveyances can be obtained.

The University is conducted by the Fathers of the Society of the Holy Cross. A number of highly competent professors assist in the various branches of studies. Other teachers and the Prefects of Discipline are supplied by the Brothers of the Holy Cross, who are, like the Fathers, devoted by their sacred calling to the education and instruction of youth.

The disciplinary government is mild, yet sufficiently energetic to preserve the most perfect order and regularity. The morals and the general deportment of pupils are assiduously watched over; and their comforts and personal habits are the objects of constant attention. Only conciliatory means of correction are used; but if any student proves insensible to these, he is promptly dismissed from the College.

Catholic parents may rest assured that the most zealous care will be taken that their children comply regularly with their religious duties, and that no efforts will be spared in instructing them fully in the principles and obligations of their holy religion.

There are in the College several religious, literary, and athletic societies for students, all tending to promote piety, learning, and bodily strength.

The pupils are divided, according to their age, into the Minim, Junior, and Senior Departments, each having its separate dormitory, study-hall, class-rooms, play-grounds, etc., its own complete Gymnasium, with its own prefects and teachers.

Number of professors and teachers, twenty-eight. Number of students, (all boarders,) usually present, four hundred and twenty-five.

Magnetic Steamers,

Patented March 15th, 1864,

By Elbert Perce.

Magnetic Flags,

Magnetic Bears,

Magnetic Lions,

Magnetic Elephants.

A MINIATURE MAGNETIC WORLD.

The apparatus consists of a sphere of hollow iron, mounted with a correct Map elegantly colored, making a perfect Terrestrial Globe, and accompanied by a number of beautifully colored Magnetic objects, representing Europeans, Asiatics, Ethiopians, Indians, National Flags, Ships, Steamers, and a variety of Animals, which adhere to any point on the surface of the globe by the power of magnetic attraction, serving to illustrate vividly the attraction of gravitation, the rotundity of the earth, its diurnal motion, the changes of day and night, the seasons, and a number of other beautiful phenomena, otherwise incomprehensible to children.

From the New-York Tablet.

"An ingenious and admirable instrument of instruction and profitable recreation is the 'Magnetic Globe,' invented by Mr. Elbert Perce, and published by Messrs. Charles Scribner & Co., of this city. Possessing all the advantages of the ordinary Terrestrial Globe, the Perce Globe has novel and striking features which create a new interest in the study of Geography. The Globe being of iron, and the objects, representing men, ships, steamers, animals, etc., which accompany it, being mounted on magnets, they adhere to the surface of the Globe wherever they may be placed, and thus not only correctly localize the inhabitants of each portion of the earth, but satisfactorily present to the eye and mind the sphericity of the earth, and many problems heretofore exceedingly difficult to explain clearly. We warmly commend this Globe as one of the most beautiful and instructive pieces of school and household apparatus for the instruction and entertainment of the young which we have yet seen."

USE THE BEST.

QUACKENBOS'S STANDARD TEXT-BOOKS.

The attention of Catholic Institutions is solicited to the following Text-Books by G. P. QUACKENBOS, A.M., widely used and everywhere commended as "the best in their several departments." "The singular excellence of all Quackenbos's School-Books is well known to the educational community. They are generally admitted to be the best manuals on the subjects of which they respectively treat."—J. W. Bulkley, City Supt. of Schools, Brooklyn.

AN ENGLISH GRAMMAR. 12mo, 288 pages. Price $1.20. Philosophical, thorough, consistent, lucid in definition, brief in rules, original in its views, radical in its reforms, practical in its exercises, interesting to the scholar, labor-saving to the teacher, ingenious in explaining perplexing constructions, makes the learning of Grammar an INTELLIGENT exercise, makes the teaching of Grammar a POSITIVE PLEASURE.

FIRST BOOK IN ENGLISH GRAMMAR. 18mo, 120 pages. Price, 50 cents. Recently published. Clear, easy, and interesting; simple, yet comprehensive. Just the book for beginners.

FIRST LESSONS IN COMPOSITION. 12mo, 182 pages. 90 cents.

ADVANCED COURSE OF COMPOSITION AND RHETORIC; Treating of the Origin of the English Language, Punctuation, Taste, Pleasures of the Imagination, Figures, Style, Criticism, and the various departments of Prose and Poetical Composition. 12mo, 450 pages. $1.75. These works on Composition have supplanted almost all others on the same subject. Hon. A. C. Barry, late State Superintendent of Common Schools in Wisconsin, reflecting the opinion of our best teachers, says: "It would be difficult to point out, in these admirable books, any thing that we would desire to have altered. They meet our wants in every respect."

PRIMARY HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES. Made easy and interesting for beginners. Child's Quarto; splendidly illustrated; 192 pages. $1.

ILLUSTRATED SCHOOL HISTORY of the UNITED STATES, with an Account of the Aborigines, and numerous Maps and Plans of Battle-fields. 12mo, 538 pages. $2. Everywhere used and commended in the strongest terms. A new chapter has been added, and every thing is brought fully up to date. Hon. JOHN SWETT, State Superintendent of California, in his annual report, says: "Quackenbos's History of the United States is admirably adapted to meet the wants of our public schools."

A NATURAL PHILOSOPHY; Adapted for use with or without Apparatus. 335 illustrations; 12mo, 450 pages. $2. Pronounced unqualifiedly the best text-book on the subject by such men as Dr. Perkins, author of the Arithmetics; President Chase, of Brookville College, Indiana; Prof. Duncan, of Louisiana; A. J. Rickoff, late Superintendent of Schools, Cincinnati; Prof. McNeely, of New-Jersey; Prof. Sheldon, of Griswold College, Davenport; President Powell, of Soulesbury College; C. B. Metcalf, Principal of High School, Worcester, etc., etc.

A PRIMARY ARITHMETIC. 18mo, 108 pages. 40 cents. Beautifully illustrated; carries the beginner through the first four Rules and the simple Tables, combining mental examples with exercises for the slate.

AN ELEMENTARY ARITHMETIC. 12mo, 144 pages. 60 cents. We claim that this work and the other numbers of this series are the best books yet produced for teaching Arithmetic. They are distinguished for their gradual and natural development of the subject, for the brevity of their definitions, rules, and analyses, and the number, variety, and practical character of the examples. The methods taught are those actually used by business men.

A PRACTICAL ARITHMETIC. 12mo, 324 pages. $1. The great feature of this book is, that it is adapted to the present state of things. We claim that this is the only Arithmetic which does not ignore the important financial changes that have taken place within the past five years. Our examples are adapted to the present; the prices given are those of to-day; the difference between gold and currency is recognized and taught; the rates of duties agree with the present tariff; the mode of computing the national income tax is explained; a full description is given of the different classes of United States securities, with examples to show the comparative results of investments in them. The branches of Mercantile Arithmetic receive special attention, and much collateral information on business subjects is embodied.

A Mental and a Higher Arithmetic, by the same Author, will soon follow.

Read the following letter to the Author, from the Sisters of the Academy of the Visitation B.V.M., Parkersburg, West Virginia, showing their opinion of his books:

"Should the expression of our opinion of the superiority of your Text-books contribute ever so little to their further circulation, we shall be highly gratified. First, because it is always a gratification to oblige so kind a friend as you have been to us; and secondly, because we are deeply interested in the progress of education everywhere in this country, particularly in connection with our Catholic Institutions; and our past experience of your text-books—their workings in the class-room—the results attained—incline us to believe that their universal introduction in our schools would effect very happy results in our system of instruction.

"With the full and entire approbation of our Rt. Rev. Bishop, we adopted your Philosophy, Rhetoric, and Grammar, several years ago, in the Wheeling Academy of the Visitation, where they afforded general satisfaction both to pupils and teachers. But it is in Parkersburg especially that they have become favorite text-books. Your Primary Grammar HAS PRODUCED ALMOST MAGICAL EFFECTS in our Primary classes of Grammar. We have never seen young pupils make such rapid and solid progress as the little girls who have been studying from your Primary Grammar for a few months only. It is a real pleasure to drop into their class-room unexpectedly, and listen to their recitations and explanations. They boast that Grammar is their favorite study, and often speak of the kind author with sentiments of gratitude."

Also Published by the undersigned,

CORNELL'S SERIES OF SCHOOL GEOGRAPHIES: consisting of First Steps, a Primary, Intermediate, Grammar-School, High-School Geography and Atlas.

These Geographies surpass all others in philosophic arrangement; in the gradual progression of their steps, and the adaptation of each part to the age and grade of scholarship for which it is intended; in presenting one thing at a time and impressing it on the mind before introducing another; in their judicious selection of facts, and the admirable mode they prescribe for memorizing the contents of a map; in the introduction into the maps of only as are mentioned in the book; and finally, in the clear representation of every fact, and the analytical precision with which each branch of the subject is kept distinct.

Cornell's Geographies have been officially adopted for the use of all the public schools of the States of California, Wisconsin, Indiana, Vermont, and New-Hampshire. They are standard text-books in the public schools of New-York, Brooklyn, Albany, Troy, Syracuse, Rochester, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Springfield, Hartford, New-Haven, Detroit, St. Louis, Wilmington, Mobile, and numerous other cities.

HARKNESS'S LATIN GRAMMAR; 12mo, 355 pages, Price, $1.75.

Although this work has been but a short time published, it has gone into use in a large number of colleges and schools throughout the country, and is recommended by our leading scholars as a decided advance on the old Latin Grammars.

For the convenience of persons who do not wish to buy a volume at a time, we are issuing an edition in semi-monthly parts, at 25 cents each, thus placing those splendid creations of Irish genius within the reach of even the poorest.

The works of the Brothers Banim are now being republished in Dublin, under the immediate supervision of Michael Banim, the surviving member of the "O'Hara Family," whose "Tales" so long delighted the British and Irish public. It is to be hoped that the American public will hail with satisfaction the opportunity now offered them, for the first time, of obtaining the complete works of John and Michael Banim, who, with the exception of Gerald Griffin, are the best and most thoroughly national novelists whom Ireland has yet produced.

This will be the only complete and uniform edition of Banim's works ever published.

LIBRARY OF IRISH NOVELS.

SADLIERS'

UNIFORM EDITION

OF THE WORKS OF

THE BROTHERS BANIM,

("THE O'HARA FAMILY,")

THE DISTINQUISHED IRISH NOVELISTS.

D. & J. SADLIER & CO. have great pleasure in announcing that they have in press a new and uniform edition of the inimitable works of these distinguished Irish writers, revised, with introduction and notes, etc., by MICHAEL BANIM, Esq., the survivor of the two original writers of the "Tales of the O'Hara Family." The following stories comprise the complete works of the "O'Hara Family:"

THE PEEP O' DAY AND CROHOORE OF THE BILLHOOK.
THE CROPPY.
THE BOYNE WATER.
THE MAYOR OF WINDGAP.
THE BIT O' WRITIN'.
THE DENOUNCED, AND THE LAST BARON OF CRANA.
LORD CLANGORE; OR, THE ANGLO-IRISH.
THE GHOST-HUNTER AND HIS FAMILY.
THE FETCHES, AND PETER OF THE CASTLE.
THE NOWLANS.
FATHER CONNELL, AND OTHER TALES.
THE SMUGGLER.

They are now being re-published in Dublin, under the immediate supervision of Michael Banim, the surviving member of the "O'Hara Family," whose "Tales" so long delighted the British and Irish public. It is to be hoped that the American public will hail with satisfaction the opportunity now offered them for the first time of obtaining the complete works of John and Michael Banim, who, with the exception of Gerald Griffin, are the best and most thoroughly national novelists whom Ireland has yet produced.

The work will be issued in parts, at 25 cents each.

This will be the only complete and uniform edition of Banim's works ever published.

The Attention of Canvassers is invited to the following Popular Works Published by us in Numbers.

NEW AND ELEGANT
ILLUSTRATED WORKS,

Published with the Approbation of the Late Most Rev. JOHN HUGHES, and the Most Rev. JOHN McCLOSKEY, Archbishop of New York.

THE LIVES AND TIMES OF THE ROMAN PONTIFFS. From St. Peter to Pius IX. Translated from the French of Chevalier D'Artaud de Moutor. Edited by Dr. Neligan. Published with the approbation of the Most Rev. John McCloskey, Archbishop of New York.

This important work—the only Catholic Lives of the Popes in the English language—is now being published in numbers. The work is stereotyped from new type (cast expressly for the work), printed on the finest quality of paper, and each part is illustrated with a fine steel engraving, engraved expressly for this work. This is got up in a style unsurpassed by any work ever printed in America.

LIFE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF GOD; with the history of the devotion to her, to which is added

THE LIVES OF ST. JOSEPH, ST. JOACHIM, AND ST. ANNE. Translated from the French of Abbe Orsini, by Mrs. J. SADLIER. To be completed in twenty-eight parts, with a fine steel engraving in each.

THE HISTORY OF THE LIFE OF OUR LORD AND SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST. Also,

THE HISTORY OF THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES. From the French of Father De Ligney. By Mrs. J. SADLIER. To be completed in twenty-five parts, with a fine steel engraving in each. A new edition of

THE CATHOLIC FAMILY BIBLE; with Notes by Bishop Challoner. To be completed in forty parts, with a fine steel engraving in each. This edition is printed on fine sized and calendered paper, and the type is surrounded by a very handsome engraved border. It is illustrated with forty fine steel engravings, and a very beautiful colored title. This is the cheapest and handsomest edition of the Douay Bible published.

BUTLER'S LIVES OF THE SAINTS. Each part illustrated with a fine steel engraving. This new edition is printed in quarto form, uniform with the "Life of the Blessed Virgin." The letter-press is surrounded by a very elegant engraved border, which adds much to the appearance of the work. Persons who wish to obtain "Butler's Lives of the Saints," as the author left it, must be sure that they get SADLIER'S EDITION. We mention this, because there is an edition, published in numbers, by a Protestant firm in this city, in which the notes, and some of the lives, have been left out. The author's notes in our edition form about one-fifth of the entire work, and it is taking a most unwarrantable liberty with the work to leave them out. Our edition is complete. The notes are the most instructive portion of the work. For instance: there is one note in our edition, "On the Writings of St. John Chrysostom," which occupies TWENTY-THREE PAGES OF SMALL TYPE, and all that is left out of the mutilated edition.

IN PREPARATION.

MACGEOGHEGAN'S HISTORY OF IRELAND; with a continuation to the present time.

Marshall's Great Work: the Contrast between Protestant and Catholic Missions.

CHRISTIAN MISSIONS: THEIR AGENTS AND THEIR RESULTS.

By T. W. M. MARSHALL.

MR. MARSHALL, the author of the foregoing work, is an eminent Catholic gentleman of England, formerly a clergyman of the Established Church. As such, he was favorably known as the author of the best work on Episcopacy that has been written by any Protestant. His History of Missions is a work of extensive research and profound interest. The subject is one of great importance, including not only Catholic, but Protestant missions; a complete history of which is given as carried on in modern times in China, India, Ceylon, Antipodes, Oceanica, Africa, Levant, Syria, and Armenia, and North and South-America. In treating the latter branch of his subject, namely, Protestant Missions, Mr. Marshall has cited an immense number of Protestant authorities, all concurring to prove with irresistible force the utter impotency of Protestant efforts to Christianize the heathen. The striking contrast exhibited by Catholic missions is clearly and eloquently portrayed. The work is one of the most valuable contributions to Catholic literature that has been given to the press in recent times. Its extensive circulation cannot fail to do great good, and it is therefore respectfully recommended by the American publishers to the patronage of the clergy and laity.

The present is being printed from advanced sheets of the second edition, for which we made arrangements with the author. It has undergone a thorough revision, and over two hundred new authorities have been quoted by the author, making the work as complete as possible.

As the work cost several thousand dollars to get out, the publishers trust that all who feel an interest in the circulation of good books will not only purchase it themselves, but will also induce their friends and neighbors to do likewise.

TERMS.—The work is published in two 8vo volumes, of nearly 700 pages each, cloth extra, $5; half morocco, $7.

WE have been honored by commendatory letters from several of our Archbishops and Bishops in relation to this great work. Their opinion of its merits, and the degree of consideration to which it is entitled, will be best understood from their own words:

Messrs. Sadlier & Co.: ALBANY, March 22, 1864.

DEAR SIRS: I have to thank you very sincerely for the handsome copy which you have sent me of Marshall's "Christian Missions." The work is a most admirable one, fully deserving of all the high encomiums which have already been passed upon it. The important subject of which it treats has never before been discussed in such a thorough and masterly manner. We ought all to feel greatly obliged to you for placing this valuable book within our reach, by the publication of an American edition. It is to be hoped that your enterprise will be rewarded by a liberal and wide-spread patronage.

With best wishes and regards, I remain

Your most obedient servant in Christ,

✠ JOHN, Bishop of Albany,

(Now Archbishop of New-York.)

NEW YORK TABLET

FOR 1867.

The Tablet is admitted by all to be the

BEST AND MOST INDEPENDENT CATHOLIC PAPER IN AMERICA.

The contents of its columns are of the most varied and unexceptional character. The most careful supervision is extended even to its advertising columns, which are kept clear of quack-medicine and sensation-paper advertisements, the presence of which unfits journals, otherwise highly respectable, for introduction into the family circle. The best Catholic talent in the country is employed upon its editorial columns.

THE NEW YORK TABLET

CONTAINS A

NEW AND ORIGINAL STORY,

WRITTEN EXPRESSLY FOR ITS COLUMNS BY

MRS. J. SADLIER,

ENTITLED—

THE HEIRESS OF KILORGAN;

At the head of its class.—Brooklyn Eagle.

CUSTOM.

THE burden we are used to bear
  Is scarce perceived—each man sustains
A weight of atmospheric air,
  And thoughtless of the load remains.

By custom we are reconciled
  To inconveniences and pains;
In lands where freedom never smiled,
  None feel the galling of their chains.

The man accustomed to disease
  Much equanimity maintains;
And though his torments never cease,
  The patient sufferer ne'er complains.

And he who, wedded to a shrew,
  A furious scolding daily gets,
Takes all the rating as his due,
  And never for his trouble frets.

And he who wears a well-worn coat
  Can scarce its shabbiness perceive—
Its greasy collar fails to note,
  Nor heeds the lacerated sleeve.

Yet it behooves us to keep pace
  With rolling earth's progressive ball;
Discard old coats, and seek that place
  Of true improvement, Tower Hall.

TESTIMONIALS.

J. B. ROBINSON, Bell Founder, New-York: SAUT STE. MARIE, Michigan.

SIR: I do hereby certify, that, within the last year, I have bought no less than NINE AMALGAM BELLS from you, and that they give full satisfaction in regard to the price as well as the general qualifications of Bells. Next spring I shall want another of your Amalgam Bells.

Very respectfully, † FREDERICK BARAGA, Bishop of Saut Ste. Marie.

J. G. MEAD, of Northwood, N. H., says of my 1200-pound Bell sold him two months ago: "We all like its sound very much. It was heard eight miles yesterday."

J. B. ROBINSON: SOUTH ELY, C. E.

DEAR SIR: Your Bell on our church surprises us all in its richness and strength of tone. I must say that it far surpasses any thing we expected to obtain for the money, and is quite equal to any brass bell I ever heard. M. PIGEON, Clergyman.

Many other testimonials will be sent on application to the manufacturer.

☞ A large stock of all sized BELLS constantly on hand, and orders filled with dispatch.

AMERICAN BELL COMPANY'S

Highest Premium

GOLD MEDAL.

☞ The following is a copy of the Certificate of the Board of Managers of the American Institute, in response to the Report of the Committee of Judges on Bells:

U. S. Stamp No. 269—[G. M.]

This is to certify that a Gold Medal was awarded the

AMERICAN BELL COMPANY

FOR

Steel Composition and Bronze Metal Bells,

WITH

Harrison's Rotating Hanging Apparatus.

(Signed) JOHN W. CHAMBERS,
Sec'y Board of Managers.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE, New-York,
October 23d, 1865.

This is the highest commendation ever given by the American Institute to any Bell Founder in the United States.

We will also remark that Harrison's Rotating Apparatus is self-acting, and as such is the only one of the kind known in the country.

The Rev. JAMES B. DONELAN, of Burlington, Iowa, to whom we sold a Bell weighing 2400 lbs., advises us, under date of May 21st, 1864:

"The Bell is received. I have sounded it, and all are pleased with its tone." And in June he writes: "All who have heard it rung concur in according it the superiority of all the Bells in the city; among others, the best musician in the city—a particular friend of mine—was sitting in his parlor at the time, and remarked, on hearing the tone: 'Good! that is Father Donelan's new Bell, I am sure.'

"I hope Mr. Harrison has received a 'tuning fork' of the exact tone of his tenor, for I hope we shall yet want seven more of the American Company's Bells."

The Rev. JOHN Brown, Eagle Harbor, Mich., says: "I have pleasure in saying that the Bell we purchased of you last June, for our church, weighing 675 lbs., affords very great satisfaction to me, and to the whole congregation; it can be heard five miles. Also the one I received last week, weighing 1275 lbs., is a superior one. I can not tell the distance it is heard, for we only hung it a few days ago. I would recommend it to all our churches on Lake Superior."
